HIV-positive Nkosinathi Mthembu (L) and his wife Hlengewi pose in the bedroom of their home in Esikhwini township, near Empangani in South Africa's Kwa-Zulu Natal province October 27, 2006. A year after receiving anti-retroviral and tuberculosis medication from the state, Nkosinathi, who appeared close to death in October 2005, has regained his strength and put on weight. Picture taken October 27, 2006.
